

Dulka Yuppata and Telkaya at SuniTAFE

Supporting First Nations students in Mildura and Swan Hill

At Dulka Yuppata and Telkaya, we support you in a culturally safe way. We do this by:

- Building strong, trusting relationships built on respect
- Providing support tailored to individual needs
- Creating a safe space where culture, identity, and wellbeing are valued

Available services and support:

Practical and Daily Support

- Transport assistance
- Breakfast program
- Time management and study support
- Help with building confidence and independence

Learning and Classroom Support

- Koorie Participation Assistant (KPA) in-class support
- Direct support from Koorie Student Support Officer (KSSO) and Koorie Liaison Officer (KLO)
- Advocacy and ongoing check-ins

Pathways, Courses, and Future Planning

- Course availability information
- Pathway planning and enrolment support
- Scholarship support
- Long-term education and career planning

Cultural Support, Community Connection and Engagement

- Koorie Manager
- Dulka Yuppata Support Officer
- Sharing cultural knowledge with staff and students
- Supporting strong identity, pride, and belonging
- Cultural significance event planning

Connections and Referrals

- Referral to internal and external support services

Our Commitment

We walk alongside students and their families, supporting independence, wellbeing, resilience, and success in education and training. We are committed to providing support in a culturally safe space and in a culturally safe way where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander identity, culture, and community are respected, valued, and strengthened.